

The moment that made my life change.

I have a sad story I want to tell you about bullying

So when I was Primary 4 and in the [REDACTED] school every thing was very good

The class was super fun but then my friend [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] but I can't tell you more its private she was been bullied and I was been bullied too and the bully name [REDACTED] make my life change he hurt me by [REDACTED]'s [REDACTED] its was in the head and didn't feel remorse and me mom go to police and want to Report to the police but first I needed to get evidence so I Go for a physical examination to get evidence but then all the Bruise was gone so I can't report to a police and now I got ADHD type. Depressed and when I was in primary 5-6 I was annoying every one every one hated me so There are two possibilities.

1 is I was hit in the head and I was be like this or 2 ADHD type. Depressed and I needed Vent your emotions I can't control it sorry and one day I every one stops hating me and now I'm better I can live a normal life now
